The number of marriages in Australia has been rising for more than a decade, now exceeding 118,962 per year. Divorces have slowed to 48,000 per year.

Certificate of Marriage
73% of all weddings are conducted by a civil celebrant

Certificate of Marriage
27% are religious

The average male marries at 29.9
The average female marries at 28.3

Road of love
Average length of marriages that end in divorce.
1993 - 10.7 years
Now - 12.1 years

1 in 5 will marry more than once
1 in 3 will end in divorce

326 weddings per day across Australia
55% of couples Aussie born

NSW has the most marriages
45% one or both born overseas

4 in 5 couples live together before marriage

1 in 5 will marry more than once
1 in 3 will end in divorce

Sources
ABS (cat. 3310.0)
McCrindle
mccrindle.com.au
researchvisualisation.com

Spring has more weddings than any other season

15% of all weddings take place on Sundays

1 in 3 will end in divorce
1 in 5 will marry more than once

4 in 5 couples live together before marriage

Revenue
56% of all weddings take place on Saturdays

Note: This infographic contains data and information related to weddings and marriages in Australia. The data includes statistics on the number of weddings, divorces, average ages of men and women at marriage, average length of marriages that end in divorce, and other related facts. The infographic also highlights trends and popular dates for weddings, as well as information about religious marriage certificates and the most common months for marriage. The data is sourced from various reputable organizations and research entities, and is presented in a visually engaging format to convey the information clearly and effectively.